

Memo on Inauguration activities to the Chief Justice and Justices of the Supreme Court, January 6, 1989.

Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D. C. 20543

CHAMBERS OF
THE CHIEF JUSTICE

January 6, 1989

MEMORANDUM TO THE CONFERENCE,
CHIEF JUSTICE BURGER AND JUSTICE POWELL

Re: Inauguration Activities

1. The Marshal and Noel Augustyn will be providing each of you with more specific information at a time closer to January 20, but this preliminary information may be helpful for planning purposes.
2. Each of you has received an invitation to the swearing-in ceremony on the West Front of the Capitol, and most of you have responded affirmatively. As has been done in the past, there will be coffee, juice and danish available beginning at 9 a.m. for you and your guests in the West Conference Room before we are driven to the Capitol at about 10:30 a.m. After the swearing in, you and your spouses will be driven back to the Court where a buffet luncheon will be available. Those of your guests who may be attending the coffee or the luncheon are expected to walk or provide their own transportation to and from the ceremony. Please notify the Marshal's Office concerning the number of your coffee and luncheon guests.
4. Tickets to the Parade will be forthcoming for you and your spouse. Those of you who plan to attend the Parade will be driven there. Cars will be available to return you to the Court or elsewhere whenever you wish to leave the Parade. Please remember, though, that in the past there have been considerable delays in attempting to return from the Parade by car. Could you please notify Noel Augustyn or the Marshal as soon as possible if you plan to attend the Parade.
5. Each of you has received invitations to the other Inaugural events: ball, "gala," etc. You should make these arrangements directly and pay for the tickets yourselves. Please notify the Marshal which, if any, of these events you will be attending.
6. Please contact the Marshal's office to let them know of any special transportation needs you may have in connection with Inaugural activities, including parking at the Court for your coffee and luncheon guests, and please feel free to contact the Marshal or Noel Augustyn with any questions you may have.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to be 'L. W.' or similar, written in dark ink.

cc: Marshal Wong
Noel Augustyn

Memo on Swearing-In Ceremonies for the Inauguration of George Bush on January 20, 1989, from Alfred Wong, Marshal of the Supreme Court of the United States, to the Chief Justice and Justices of the Supreme Court, January 19, 1989.

Office of the Marshal
Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D. C. 20543

January 19, 1989

MEMORANDUM TO THE CONFERENCE, CHIEF JUSTICE BURGER (RET.), &
JUSTICE POWELL (RET.)

SUBJECT: Swearing-In Ceremonies at the Capitol; Coffee and Buffet Lunch at the Court

Coffee, tea, juice, danish available at 9:00 AM in West Conference Room.

Due to the many groups participating and scheduled on a timely basis, the Court, we are advised, must arrive somewhat early.

The following schedule is proposed in order to meet scheduling requirements:

1. Assemble in the basement driveway for immediate boarding and departure at 10:15 AM for arrival at the Law Library Door at 10:20 AM, and thence to the Old Supreme Court Chamber.
2. Robing of the Justices will take place in the old Chamber. Spouses, we are advised, will be escorted at 11:05 AM from the Chamber to the Senate Wing doors, out to the Terrace and to their seats in the North Box Section overlooking the Presidential Platform. We have assurances that the spouses will be escorted back to the Chamber following the ceremonies to join up with the Justices.
3. The Justices are scheduled to leave the Chamber at 11:07 AM, use the elevator opposite the Pharmacy, descend one floor and walk to the staging area behind and several steps above the Presidential Platform. We enter the Platform in seniority order and are seated Platform left front. Following the ceremonies the Justices will be escorted back to the Chamber for departure to the Court.

All ticketholders are reminded to bring their tickets.

Buffet lunch will be available following return to the Court.

January 19, 1989

Page 2

We have been informed that Justices going to the parade reviewing stand may use the parade route for vehicle access before but not later than 1:20 PM. To preclude error Justices attending the parade should contact the Marshal's Office, in writing, informing them of desired time of departure to and return from parade.

Weather Forecast:

Cloudy, high forties, breezy.

Alfred Wong
Marshal